

Position: Environmental Scientist

Location(s): Farmington Hills, Michigan Holt, Michigan

Impact Compliance & Testing, Inc. (ICT) is a consulting firm that offers its clients air pollutant emission compliance services that include permitting, testing, air monitoring, and engineering and regulatory analyses. Based on the continued growth of our environmental services, ICT has an opening for an Environmental Scientist.

Summary: Responsible for a variety of field and office support roles under direct of more experienced personnel/Project Manager to support variety of technical projects including data management, field services, permitting, compliance, and reporting.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Compile data for project reports.
- Providing technical assistance on environmental permitting and compliance.
- Collect and compile field data as required, or other field services as necessary.
- Document technical data for management review.
- Assist with preparation of labor/material estimates for various tasks
- Support the testing team as needed.
- Understanding and preparing spreadsheet calculations and developing test results reports.
- Other duties as assigned or as needed.

Qualifications and Experience:

- Bachelor's degree in a science-related field
- Basic computer knowledge with ability to learn multiple software applications.
- Good verbal and written communications.
- Valid driver's license and good driving record. Drivers are subject to drug testing and medical exams as required by DOT regulations (only for DOT certified drivers).
- Willing to occasionally travel out of town on projects (usually no longer than one week).
- Ability to work independently or in small crews.
- Ability to communicate and coordinate effectively with supervisors and site management.

If you are interested in joining our team, please send your resume to jobpost@impactcandt.com. We thank all applicants for their interest. We appreciate your interest in ICT.

